

Al Barari Hosts Shahrukh Khan

Dubai's finest up close and personal with King Khan

14 December 2006, Dubai, UAE: In line with its dedication to offering an exclusive lifestyle experience, Al Barari, the premium luxury homes development company, hosted India's biggest celebrity icon – Shahrukh Khan – at a glittering event in Jumeirah Beach Hotel's ballroom on December 14th for a select group of Al Barari's home owners, prospective buyers as well as key opinion leaders and social figures in Dubai.

Commenting on the event, Zaal Mohammed Zaal, Chairman of Al Barari, said: "Al Barari embodies a promise that stretches beyond architectural luxury to include an overall premium lifestyle experience which encompasses every aspect of life including location, setting as well as social environment. This event is symbolic of the overall lifestyle experience we promise our clients – one which embraces the finest the world has to offer".

Al Barari CEO, Nadia Zaal added "We are pleased to have hosted Shahrukh Khan, who is considered to be amongst Bollywood's most celebrated stars, in an exclusive evening which brought him 'up close and personal' with our high net worth stakeholders. This event is amongst the many ways through which we acknowledge our stakeholders which are accustomed to luxury, style and above all exceptional quality"

Together with his entourage of over 13 talented entertainers, Shahrukh Khan, whose wit and energy is legendary, gave an unforgettable performance which also featured the incredibly talented Malaika Arora Khan and Sukwinder Singh.
